The commission has already asked the State Road Department to name the road the "John H. Perry Highway" in honor of the late Palm Beach publisher.

Tire Recap Plant Is Being Erected

Work started this week on a new building for Paul Sasser to be used as a tire recap plant in Pahokee. The building is being erected on the property across the street from the Methodist church at the intersection of Barfield Highway and SR15.

The building is being built by Alvin Armstrong and a crew of workmen. Mr. Armstrong designed the building for Mr. Sasser. It will be of concrete block and the roof will be steel reinforced concrete. The structure will cover a 40x40 plot on the rear of the lot. Mr. Armstrong said that he plans to do the job in 26 working days.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Duncan are spending several weeks at Hot Springs, Ark.

Programs For Foot Ball Are Prepared

Work was started the past week on the new programs for the home football games of the Pahokee High School Blue Devils. These programs, as in the past, are sponsored by the Pahokee High School Band with net proceeds from the sale of the programs and the advertisements they carry going into the band fund.

The program this year is being printed in the commercial printing department of The Everglades News.

The Band Parents Association, headed this year by Mrs. Lewis Friend, has several of its members soliciting ads for the program and the public is urged to respond generously to this project as it is the major and, if successful, only fund-raising project of the band. Last year sufficient funds were raised through the football program to cover the band's expenses through the entire school year. We believe Pahokee High School has one of the "finest bands in the land" and it certainly deserves our full support.

Blue Devils Squad In Precision Drill

With the opening of school Tuesday, the Pahokee Blue Devil football squad under the direction of Coach Webb Pell, and Assistant Coach Bill Howard had buckled down to the rough and tumble work of body contact in scrimmage sessions, with 26 candidates for the team reporting for practice.

Pell, since Aug. 16, has been putting his men through the paces of toughening-up exercises, precision drills, the fundamentals of blocking and tackling and other practice exercises preparatory to scrimmage which he started this week. This week the time had come to separate the squad into scrimmage teams and try out some of the plays that the Blue Devils will use in their opener at Clewiston the night of Sept. 17. The Blue Devil coach believes the 26 men now reporting for practice will be the largest number he will have on the squad during the coming season, with probably a few of these dropping out for various reasons.

Pell is pleased with the fighting spirit his squad is showing to date and has hopes for a "better than average season but discounts some of the East Coast dopster's predictions that Pahokee will be the chief contender for the Suncoast Conference crown against the Fort Pierce Eagles, the defending champions, who again this year have the top preseason rating in the conference. He says he just doesn't have the reserve strength in the 1954 Blue Devil squad to entertain such high hopes.

Cinematic Chatter

By Malcolm Miller

Hello everybody! Anne Baxter, since returning to Hollywood from Germany, where she just completed a picture to be released in the United States, has expressed the opinion that the domination of French and Italian films will be seriously challenged by the German film makers in the near future. Although her picture, soon to be shown in this vicinity, "Carnival Story", was made by a Hollywood film unit with American stars in Munich, it was filmed simultaneously with a German cast for the European market and Miss Baxter had the opportunity of studying German players and craftsmen. "Not since the Pre-Hitler days when Pola Negri, Marlene Dietrich and Emil Jennings were starring in the wonderful German films has there been such a surge toward the renaissance of the film industry over there," says Miss Baxter. "However, all new names dominate the popularity polls conducted by German movie fans. Hildegard Neff, who has made a number of films in Hollywood, rates high among the first ten. But because of the war, the greatest dearth of talent is in the ranks of young leading men," Anne continues. There are so many countries opening up for film-making and such a demand for American screen personalities in these films that the walls of Hollywood sound stages must be expanded to encompass the entire globe." See you at the movies—Mal.

Sylvia Annette Wilson Weds B. Elliott, Jr.

Following the morning worship hour at the Pahokee First Methodist Church Sunday, the church sanctuary was the scene at high noon of the wedding of Miss Sylvia Annette Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lon B. Wilson, and B. Elliott, Jr., son of Rep. and Mrs. B. Elliott, all of Pahokee. Vows for the double ring ceremony were read by the Rev. Oliver Hatfield, retired minister of Canal Point, as the couple stood before the altar decorated with floor baskets of white chrysanthemums and palms. The program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. William McClenithan, church organist and pianist.

The bride wore a street-length dress of white lace over pastel blue taffeta and a matching lace hat. She carried a white Bible centered with white orchids attached to white satin streamers.

Mrs. Wilson chose for her daughter's wedding a light blue shantung dress with white accessories and a purple orchid corsage, while Mrs. Elliott, mother of the bridegroom, wore an orchid crepe dress with matching accessories and an orchid corsage.

Auto Ferry From Key West To Cuba

MIAMI—The dream of many people for many years will materialize Oct. 2 with the inauguration from Key West of the first automobile ferry service between the United States and Cuba.

The project upon, which more hopes have been dashed than were ships on the reefs off the Florida Keys in sailing days, is the accomplishment of the Caribbean Ferry System.

The "City of Key West" will operate Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday from Key West, leaving at 9 a. m., and arriving at 3:30 p. m. in Cardenas, Cuba—minutes from Varadero Beach, one of Cuba's most famous resorts, and 100 miles from Havana. On Monday, Wednesday and Friday, it will leave Cardenas at 10 a. m., arriving in Key West at 4 p. m.

The Navy-built ship is 203 feet long, 34 feet wide, and powered by two 1800 horsepower Diesel engines. It will accommodate 40 cars and 240 passengers. More than a quarter of a million dollars has been expended in converting and fitting it for this deluxe ferry service.

One way fare will be $29.90 for car and driver, $7.50 per passenger. N. C. Hines, executive vice president of the Caribbean Ferry System, said that another ferry will be added to provide daily service each way as soon as traffic evidences the need. It also is planned to extend service to Havana and other Caribbean countries, Hines added.

Special attention has been devoted in outfitting the ship to the provision of every facility for the comfort, relaxation and entertainment of the passengers: Among the features are a first class restaurant and a cocktail lounge.

Hines said the "City of Key West" will make the crossing in approximately six hours.

Women Will Collect Toll On Skyway

ST. PETERSBURG—When motorists cross Florida's new Sunshine Skyway connecting Pinellas, and Manatee counties they will find the toll gates operated by natively uniformed women.

Using women as toll takers was the idea of Cecil Webb, chairman of the State Road Department.

Public reaction to the innovation is favorable at least as far as male travelers are concerned, for it doesn't seem as unpleasant to shell out a dollar seventy-five to an attractive girl who greets you with a smile.

The manager of the bridge, however, is a man, L. E. Radcliffe, as is the toll captain, Dick Lanbis.

KINDERGARTEN OPENS

Mrs. Arch Blakey, who has conducted a private kindergarten in Pahokee for the past several years, opened the kindergarten at her home, 210 Annona Ave., for the registration of pupils Tuesday, Sept. 7. More Help Ahead for Farmers . . . Engineers Try Electricity on Silos

Experimental electric elevator fills 36-foot silo successfully.

By IRA MILLER

Farm Electrification Bureau

Farm electrification's progress is tied directly to the "never say die" spirit of the nation's agricultural engineers. Take silo filling, for example.

Silo filling had been considered a "big power" chore—too big for electric motors. Apparently, this is not the case, although it will be some time yet before the first successful experimental electric ensilage elevator "graduates from college" to the farm. Until that time comes, tractors and stationary gasoline engines can be expected to take care of silo filling operations. Also, they'll probably handle the ensilage cutting jobs—when they're done at the silo. This latter way of cutting ensilage is changing, however. An increasing amount of grass and corn silage now is being cut in the field with new mobile harvesters, rather than by stationary equipment on the farmstead.

Ensilage, in many cases, now arrives at the silo ready for storage.

Christian Science Group Of Canal Point

The practical value of understanding God as the source of all true substance will be stressed at Christian Science services Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Substance."

Selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following (301:17-20): "As God is substance and man is the divine image and likeness, man should wish for, and in reality has, only the substance of good, the substance of Spirit, not matter."

From the Bible will be read the following passages from Psalms (37:3-5): "Trust in the Lord, and do good; so shall thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed. Delight thyself also in the Lord; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart. Commit thy way unto the Lord; trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass."

According to studies made by engineers of Fairbanks, Morse & Co., 1405 gallons of water are required to bring a helping of potatoes to the dinner table.

WHICH ONE DO YOU WANT?

you can have your dream house—this easy way!

A dream? Not at all. Thousands of people with modest incomes have been able to save the down payment, or the whole price, of the home of their dreams—because they invested in U. S. Savings Bonds on the Payroll Savings Plan. Look at the chart on this page. See how you can accumulate enough money for the down payment on a home. Or enough for your children's college education or a retirement income. And by saving only a few dollars a week, too.

The answer is that you save systematically on the Payroll Savings Plan. All you have to do is tell your pay office how much you've decided to save each payday (it can be as little as a couple of dollars). After that your money is saved for you, before you get your salary. Then each time enough has accumulated, it is invested in a Bond, and the Bond turned over to you.

And remember—your U. S. Savings Bonds now will bring you an average of 3% interest, compounded semiannually, for 19 years and 8 months. That's why the money you put into Bonds now grows to such a surprisingly big sum.

Why don't you start—today? Sign, where you work, for the Payroll Savings Plan. Or, if you're self-employed, have your banker enroll you in the Bond-A-Month Plan. It's as easy as the Payroll Savings Plan.

How you can reach your savings goal on the systematic Payroll Savings Plan

	If you want approximately
	$5,000	$10,000	$25,000
Each week for 9 years and 8 months, save...	$8.80	$18.75	$45.00
Each week for 19 years and 8 months, save...	$3.75	$7.50	$18.75

This chart shows only a few typical examples of savings goals and how to reach them through Payroll Savings. You can save any sum you wish, from a couple of dollars a payday up to as much as you want. The important thing is, start your Plan today!

New Settling Tank For Local Water Plant

The Canal Point Water Company, owned by the U. S. Sugar Corporation, is replacing one of its 20,000 settling tanks and plans to build another of the same capacity to take care of the increasing demand for water in the community, according to O. H. Sheppard, manager of the Eastern Division of the USSC. When this project is completed the waterworks plant will have three settling tanks with a combined capacity of 60,000 gallons.

The Canal Point Water Company serves the residence and business houses in the townsite and northern section of Canal Point, while Stuckey's waterworks plant serves the packing house area and southern residential section of the community.
